And you, in turn, share in the joy of bringing hope into the lives of those we serve.

Text giving is hands down the easiest and most secure way to give. If you know how to send a text message, you can make a gift to Partners in Charity in seconds on your phone . Best yet, our parishes, St.Brigid and Our Lady of the Assumption, will receive credit. Text donate to 84576. In addition to giving you can also view the 2022 appeal video. You can also make your gift online at partners-charity.net.

A Good Friday Reflection

The following is the first of a four part Lenten/Easter reflection written by our brother, John Piselli, on what it must have been like for John the disciple of Jesus, on this night after the crucifixion.

It was terrifying…
We ran for our lives, James ran off leaving his tunic in the hands of one of the guards. I have not seen or heard from Peter after the incident in the courtyard of Caiaphas.

Mother and I followed Jesus from the praetorium to Joseph's tomb. Mother and her sister Mary and the Magdalene prepared his savagely torn body as quickly as possible while we could before the Sabbath. I cannot cry any more and Mother, she has lost her strength as if her own side was pierced by the lance. She has not lifted her head from the mat. She lays there in heaves all through the night. Magdalene and I are here as Mary has gone home to her family.

Sabbath. Christ… God.

We got word from some that the earthquake shook the Holy of Holies tearing the curtain from top to bottom.

I don't remember if we spoke. It seemed hard to form words. Yet when we moved about we seem to know without speaking. I poured the drink and offered bread. Mother would not take any…

The noise of the crowds shouting was deafening. And now it is the quiet and the still that shouts in my head. Gone! GONE!

Magdalene pulls me from my mat. Silent tears start again as her face shows a sorrowful acknowledgement. She pulls at my tunic. There in the fold is His blood. In an instant the whole day flashes in front of my eyes, the agonizing lashes, His bloodied head, "Crucify Him...no," the dirt filled wounds from His falls, the nails...the…

I don't know if my heart can hurt any more than it does now...and seeing this stain… I don't know if I was standing… I fell to the mat.

My eyes opened to the flickering of the oil lamps and Magdalene kneeling over me in prayer.

"I'm up.."

She nodded and pulled back to allow me to sit up.

"Did you eat, Magdalene?" She shook her head and pointed to where Mother was laying… She too was in prayer. And there was something new in her look. A resolve. I could see her lips moving but did not hear a sound. Magdalene nudged me and signaled me to pray.

How do you pray after all this today? How do I pray…I could hear the echo of His voice as if He were standing behind me.

Flashback to Jesus speaking
Jesus: "When you pray...Say, Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven…"

John: "Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, Lead us not into temptation and deliver us from the evil one."
My words broke the silence of the night. They seemed thunderous against the silence of the night.
He is gone.

We remained in the echo of the silence all night. The lamps were put out and the world was dark but for the one corner where Mother remained caught up in prayer.

My eyes closed over the salty sting of my eyes that ache from the sorrows of this day. I don't know if there is such a thing as tomorrow and still I closed my eyes to the dark.

As I prepare for Easter and prepare myself for a night of sleep, to all of you, may the joy of Easter find you, and fill your hearts... Love, John

A legacy of learning...a history with heart

Northeast Region States

The Fourth Grade Social Studies Class did a project on the Northeast States of the United States of America. Each student picked a state and gave all the important information about it (history, flag, bird, flower, landforms, natural resources, and more). The project was very informative and a lot was learned about how each state differs. Mrs. Russo, the Fourth Grade Social Studies Teacher, was very proud of the work done by her students.
